

SAMA MONTHLY

If music be the food of love, play on.
-William Shakespeare

IN THE NEWS

San Antonio Music Academy is glad to welcome two new instructors to our staff. Tom Sprayberry, a graduate of Stetson University in DeLand, Florida, has been teaching private guitar as well as group classes for more than 7 years. Tom recently performed for his masters recital and will receive his masters degree in guitar performance from the University of Texas at San Antonio in May of this year. Jordan Copeland, our new vocal instructor, is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas. She is currently pursuing a masters degree in Vocal Pedagogy and Performance from UTSA. She has studied from various notable instructors, among them, Dr. Lynnette Chambers. We are very fortunate to have Tom and Jordan on staff and would like to thank all the parents and students for helping our studio grow.

UPCOMING EVENTS

San Antonio Music Academy will host a spring recital at the RBC Recital Hall on both May 15th and May 22nd. All students are encouraged to perform if their instructor feels they are prepared. Please see the receptionist at the beginning of May to sign up for the time that works best with your schedule. There will be 3 recitals times (1pm, 2pm, 3pm) on both May 15th and May 22nd.
