SAMA Welcomes Diane House

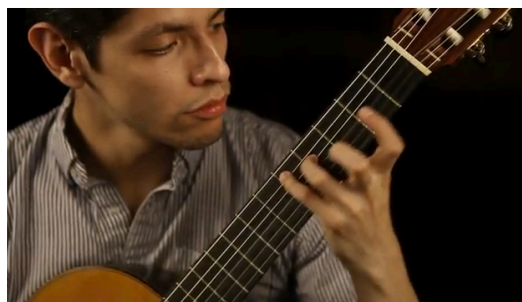

Diane House is a recent Graduate of Texas State University, having received her Master's degree under the vocal guidance of Professor Juli Wood. While at Texas State University, Diane played Madeline in The Face on the Barroom Floor, stage-managed the production Candide and played Rose in Kurt Weill's Street Scene. Diane is currently a featured performer for San Antonio Opera Company, having portrayed a novice in Puccini's Suor Angelica and the Announcer in the "soap opera" Gallantry. Diane plans to continue performing as well as build her teaching career.

✕ Congratulations ✕

SAMA would like to congratulate the students who participated in the spring recital at the Laugh Our Loud Comedy Club. We are proud of all of our performers! Our next recital is tentatively scheduled for August 27th & 28th at the LOL Comedy Club.
