

FUN TIME FOR HOLIDAY MUSIC

The month of December is an exciting time of the year to share your musical talent with your friends and families, whether it is a recital performance or at home in front of family members. Does it have to be holiday music repertoire? Not necessarily, but it will bring a special excitement if students get to choose and play their favorite holiday music.

Some students pick what they are most familiar with. Some pick their sibling's favorites or their parents' favorites. With the availability of publications out there, holiday music comes available in almost all levels whether it be solo repertoire, duet repertoire, or even ensemble pieces. While solo repertoire is most practical, duet repertoire can be fun and often has a fuller sound. Duet repertoire usually can be done with your teacher, or if it is level appropriate, it can be done with your siblings or friends. How fun is that? While it can be challenging, it is totally worth it.

So while we are deciding on what Christmas presents and decorations we want for this year, don't forget to pick your favorite holiday music, learn to play it masterfully, and share it with your friends and family.

-Maria Crystalia
Piano Instructor

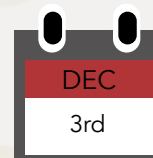

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

BRIANNA R. IS A STELLAR STUDENT! SHE PRACTICES CONSISTENTLY, AND IT SHOWS. SHE JUST PASSED OFF AN ENTIRE BOOK OF SONGS IN RECORD TIME. KEEP UP THE GREAT WORK, BRIANNA!

-MARK CAMPBELL
PIANO INSTRUCTOR

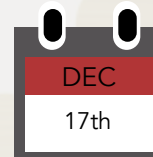

UPCOMING EVENTS:

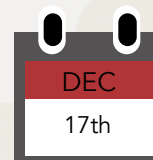

Elephant in the Room performs
@ Winterfest (Raymond Russell Park)

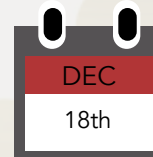

Winter Recital
@ RBC Sheet Music

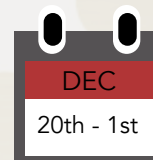

Jacob Vallejo's Birthday

Kelsey Santoy's Birthday

Winter Recital
@ LOL Comedy Club

Studio Holiday

